How Great Thou Art

1. Lord my God, When I in awesome wonder,
Consider all the worlds Thy Hands have made;
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

2. When through the woods, and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees.
When I look down, from lofty mountain grandeur
And see the brook, and feel the gentle breeze.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

..conti

3. And when I think, that God, His Son not sparing;
Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the Cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin.

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,

How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

4. When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation,
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart.
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration,
And then proclaim: "My God, how great Thou art!"

Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, My Saviour God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, How great Thou art!

Scripture Readings

1 Timothy 4:6–8 (NIV):

6 If you point these things out to the brothers and sisters, you will be a good minister of Christ Jesus, nourished on the truths of the faith and of the good teaching that you have followed.

7 Have nothing to do with godless myths and old wives' tales; rather, train yourself to be godly.

8 For physical training is of some value, but godliness has value for all things, holding promise for both the present life and the life to come.

Philippians 1:21–23 (NIV):

21 For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain.

22 If I am to go on living in the body, this will mean fruitful labor for me. Yet what shall I choose? I do not know!

23 I am torn between the two: I desire to depart and be with Christ, which is better by far.

Hymn - Old Rugged Cross

1. On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross,
the emblem of suffering and shame;
and I love that old cross where the dearest and best for a world of lost sinners was slain.

Refrain:

So I'll cherish the old rugged cross,
till my trophies at last I lay down;
I will cling to the old rugged cross,
and exchange it some day for a crown.

2. O that old rugged cross, so despised by the world,
has a wondrous attraction for me;
for the dear Lamb of God left his glory above
to bear it to dark Calvary. [Refrain]

3. In that old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,
a wondrous beauty I see,
for 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died,
to pardon and sanctify me. [Refrain]

4. To that old rugged cross I will ever be true, its shame and reproach gladly bear;
then he'll call me some day to my home far away,
where his glory forever I'll share. [Refrain]

Hymn - Great is thy Faithfulness

1. Great is thy faithfulness, O God, my Father;
There is no shadow of turning with thee.
Thou changest not, thy compassions, they fail not;

As thou hast been, thou forever wilt be.

Refrain:

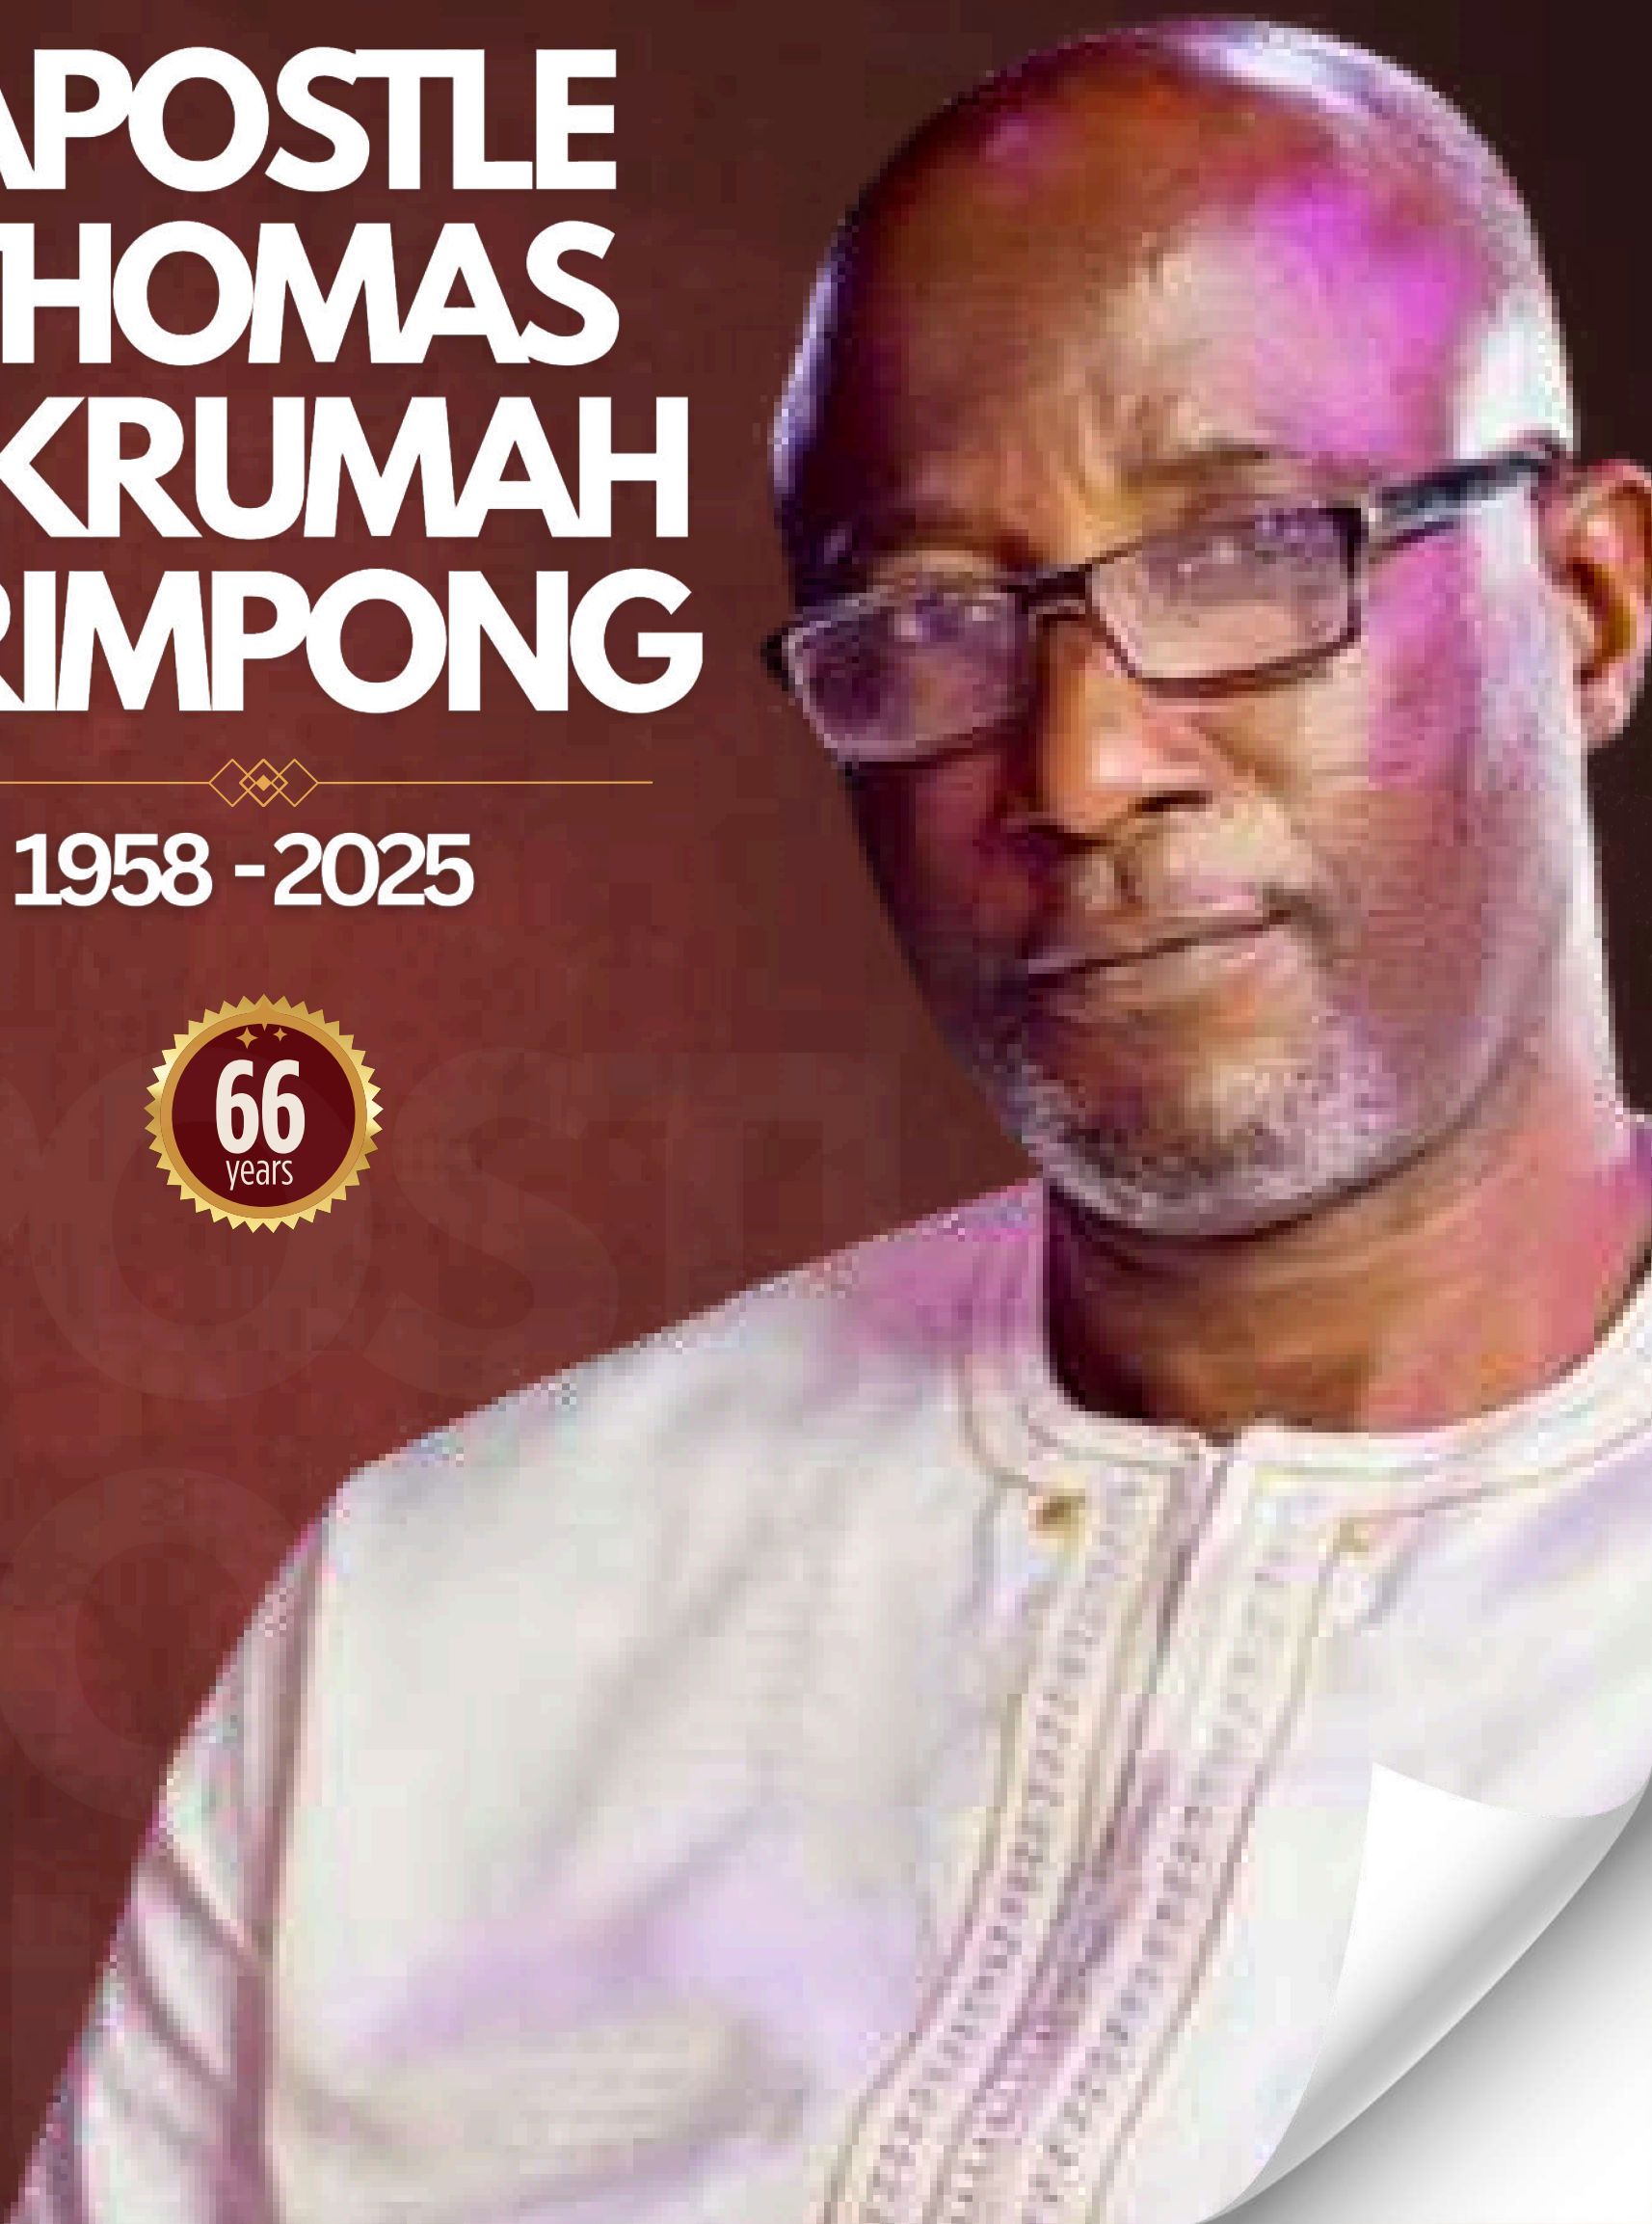

Great is thy faithfulness,
Great is thy faithfulness,
Morning by morning new mercies I see.
All I have needed thy hand hast provided;
Great is thy faithfulness,
Lord unto me.

2. Summer and winter and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon, and stars in their courses above
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To thy great faithfulness, mercy, and love. [Refrain]

3. Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
Thine own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
Blessings all mine and ten thousand beside. [Refrain]

BIOGRAPHY

If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. Romans 14:8

Early Life and Education:

Thomas Frimpong Nkrumah was born on October 28, 1958, in Kukuom, Ghana, to the late Chief Inspector John Kwame Nkrumah and Mary Attaa Akwaa. As the firstborn among 20 siblings (12 on his father's side and 8 on his mother's side), he developed a strong sense of leadership and responsibility early in life. His upbringing was rooted in faith and discipline, values that shaped his life's journey.

He began his education in a series of Roman Catholic primary schools across Adamasu, Seikwa, and Dormaa Ahenkro, where he developed a strong academic foundation. He proceeded to Dormaa Secondary School in 1974, where he studied Science until 1979. Known for his athleticism, he was also an enthusiastic basketball player during his school years.

Work and Life Journey

After completing his education, Thomas moved to Accra for work during the era of President Acheampong and secured employment at GIHOC, a state-owned company. Unfortunately, the company collapsed, and he later found work at Naamba Printing Press near Circle in Accra. However, the company faced political challenges during the PNDC regime, and as tensions mounted, Thomas fled to Nigeria.

He returned to Ghana in 1996 and finally settled in Accra, where he reunited with his wife, and they were formally married on December 31, 1999. He was more than a husband; he was almost like his wife's twin and best friend. Their bond was deep, built on laughter, mutual respect, and a deep affection that was evident to everyone around them. They were blessed with two wonderful children, Maa Afia and Paa Kwesi, and 5 grandchildren. Accra remained his home until his passing in July 2025.

Spiritual Life and Ministry

Thomas Frimpong was deeply spiritual and committed to Christian service. He received training in deliverance ministry at Akropong and Sekyere Odumase. Along with three other trainees, he helped establish a non-denominational fellowship which met on Thursdays to share the word of God. He was an Apostle with the Believers' Miracle Prayer Center at Lapaz. His life of prayer and devotion was inspiring to many. He was passionate about the Word, eager to share the hope of Christ, and deeply rooted in love. His faith was alive and unwavering, a light in our family and to everyone who knew him. His sister, Achiaa, fondly recalls their 2 am prayer sessions with another sibling, Amankwaa.

Character and Legacy

Thomas Frimpong Nkrumah was a man of remarkable discipline, warmth, and generosity. He was selfless, always giving without reservation and offering support to those in need. Whether through spiritual guidance, emotional presence, or material help, Thomas lived to serve.

He was also a man who held cleanliness in high regard, a trait he lovingly inherited from his late father. Bra Frimpong took pride in maintaining order and neatness in every aspect of his life. Whether he was ironing a shirt, shining his shoes, or tidying up a space, he did it with care and intention. Cleanliness wasn't just a habit; it was a reflection of his dignity and discipline.

In the days leading up to his passing, he expressed deep love and affection to his siblings, in particular during a heartfelt conversation with Monica, which left a lasting impression. His sister noted how openly he shared his emotions, even teasingly drawing the gentle jealousy of his wife due to the depth of his expressed affection.

Last Days

Shortly before his passing, a message was sent to him, and three days went by with no response from him. The silence was unusual and worrying. Soon after, his wife called to share the shocking news of his illness. Sadly, Thomas Frimpong passed away on Thursday, July 17, 2025.

Thomas leaves behind a loving wife, children, many siblings, and a community of believers who were deeply impacted by his ministry. He will be remembered not only as a devoted husband and brother but also as a spiritual father, a man of faith, and a beacon of light in the lives of all who knew him.

His legacy lives on in the hearts he touched, the prayers he prayed, and the life he lived with purpose and grace.

It is Well with my Soul

When peace, like a river, attendeth my way,
When sorrows like sea billows roll;
Whatever my lot, Thou has taught me to say,
It is well, it is well, with my soul.

2. Though Satan should buffet, though trials should come,
Let this blest assurance control,
That Christ has regarded my helpless estate,
And hath shed His own blood for my soul.

3. My sin, oh, the bliss of this glorious thought!
My sin, not in part but the whole,
Is nailed to the cross, and I bear it no more,
Praise the Lord, praise the Lord, O my soul!

4. For me, be it Christ, be it Christ hence to live:
If Jordan above me shall roll,
No pang shall be mine, for in death as in life
Thou wilt whisper Thy peace to my soul.

5. But, Lord, 'tis for Thee, for Thy coming we wait,
The sky, not the grave, is our goal;
Oh trump of the angel! Oh voice of the Lord!
Blessed hope, blessed rest of my soul!
